

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Leroy Mike Fugitt (Mike) obtained his degree from the University of Nebraska, he served as principal and superintendent in Iowa before moving to Pierre. He was employed by the Department of Education prior to being named principal at Georgia Morse Middle School, and for the past fourteen years has served as principal at T.F. Riggs High School; and,

Whereas, Mike has devoted the past forty years of his life to the betterment of others through the field of education; and,

Whereas, Mike has served the past sixteen years of his career with Pierre School District, changing numerous lives; and,

Whereas, Mike currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Missouri Shores Domestic Violence Shelter and the Right Turn; and,

Whereas, Mike will spend his retirement traveling, visiting grandchildren, and crossing off a long "to do" list; and,

Whereas, Mike will continue to perfect his cooking and photography skills while enjoying his retirement; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan, and congratulate him on his retirement June 30, 2011:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 30, 2011, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
